

Meet Kaylie & Tamika

Tamika – Wellbeing Coach

Dalby, Kingaroy, Chinchilla, Miles & Tara

Tamika is a long-time Western Downs local with over 15 years' experience across mental health, youth, disability and community services. She offers a calm, practical approach, focusing on small, consistent steps that build confidence, trust and connection. Tamika enjoys time outdoors with family and friends and values humour and connection as key to wellbeing.

Kaylie – Wellbeing Coach

Originally from New Zealand and now a proud Australian citizen, Kaylie brings a strong appreciation for regional communities shaped through her work in not-for-profit and community housing services. She has supported people experiencing crisis, housing insecurity and major life transitions. With lived experience and ongoing study in Trauma-Informed Counselling, Kaylie provides empathetic, grounded support as part of the Momentum team.

- Outreach across surrounding communities.

In Dalby, we offer a group-based psychosocial support sessions (non-clinical wellbeing coaching) for people who:

- Feel anxious, stressed or overwhelmed
- Are isolated or lonely
- Want support with routines, confidence or life skills
- Need someone to listen and walk alongside them

Support focuses on practical tools, encouragement, goal-setting and building everyday coping strategies.

Available every Thursday 10am - 2pm

The 5 Ways to Wellbeing

At Momentum, we use the 5 Ways to Wellbeing to guide our work and help you build a stronger foundation for mental and emotional health.

Connection

Spend time with friends, family, neighbours or community groups. Feeling connected helps us feel supported and valued.

Be Active

Move your body in ways that feel good – walking, stretching, gardening or sport. Activity improves both mood and energy.

Keep Learning

Trying something new builds confidence and keeps your mind active. This could be a hobby, a skill, or learning about yourself. It can both mood and energy.

Be Aware

Pause and be present. Notice your thoughts, feelings and the world around you. Practising mindfulness can reduce stress.

Help Others

Helping others – even in small ways – boosts your sense of purpose and connection.
